Dreamland is introducing a new electric inner-sole to-day at its performance—only, waiters are requested not to come back on the management for damages.

The picture, "Electric Inner-sole," is about the funniest thing that has been witnessed in town for months. It is a starter. The heavy drama, "A Sister's Sacrifice," deserves front rank among strong, interesting dramas.

Pipes and Gerns.

Sticklers for hygiene will be pleased to hear of the latest dictum of medical associations in eastern cities as to the germ susceptibility of a smoker's pipe.

The "bit" of a pipe is every bit as much of a germ magnet as a moistened cigar end or a cigarette.

Doctors have warned smokers for years against using public cigar clippers and against laying down a partly smoked cigar or cigarette on the edge of a desk, table or window sill. Recently the ban has also been placed on pipes. "Don't lay a pipe down, either," says the medical blurbrows, "particularly if it has a curved stem. A pipe will not stay put," but will roll a little to readjust itself unless it is laid down with the greatest care. The saliva moistened bit could pick up a few odd million microbes just as easily as not. And so it would seem that the only safe way to lay down a pipe, except in a rack, is not to lay it down at all.—Philadelphia Record.

Ten to One.

Canada's population is close to 8,000,000, and the United States is about 90,000,000. Each nation reached respectively its hundred million dollar per capita mark almost simultaneously, and the chances are that Canada will turn the 10,000,000 population mark about the time the United States population numbers 100,000,000. The 10 to 1 ratio between the two nations seems to hold good in a number of matters.—Ottawa Journal.

Resourcefulness.

Speaker Cannon at the Gridiron club's last dinner said of a famous millionaire:

"He owes his success to his resourcefulness. He turns every disaster into victory. Once he told me a cow got into his garden and tramped down his geraniums."

"Oh, what a shame!" said I. "And what did you do?"

"I got a pet and milked it," he replied.—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

THIS WEEK

when we advertised our latest Ladies' Suits at half price we very quickly found customers waiting for just such bargains. If you are to get one of these Suits come this week, later won't do. By selling these Suits and Coats at our prices it closes them out quick and leaves us the racks clear for new Spring kinds. It's a big sacrifice, still we think that it is our best way.

Suits and Coats

These garments are all new Fall styles. None of them of poor materials or poorly made. They are some of the best that came into our store this season.

Price sometime signifies the quality, the original price does but the present price does not.

These values go to our best trade, those that want a good garment and can use it at these advertised prices.

These home sales are not much like sending away for goods that appear to be bargains only to find out in the end that the price was too much to begin with. We have to stand back of our merchandise and this makes a safe investment for all purchasers.

This Week

We are showing an advanced line of very fine Mercerized Poplins in a very large line of designs and colors. In fact we have pictured this line as one of the largest and best that will be shown in Vermont this season.

These Poplins were made for us from our own selected colors and patterns by the mills and come to us direct, so that you pay no middleman's profit. Add to the manufacturer's cost our small profit and the rest goes to you in real value.

These fine Poplins will be the most popular goods on the market for Spring suits and pleated skirts. A cloth that will be scarce before June 1st and the price is but 25c for any style or color.

This Week

Our window is now full of Gingham that for style and price are right. These Gingham are having a great sale. Ladies have come to know that the most wear for the money comes from a good grade of Gingham and then again the styles are there.

No class of wash goods has such a variety of nice, pretty styles as the latest things in Gingham.

We have special values in 8c, 10c and 12 1/2c Gingham, also a few styles in Scotch Gingham at 15c a yard. (Not now.)

Saturday morning we are to sell all of the Hamburgs in our window at 10c per yard by the piece of six yards. These are a good sale and cannot be duplicated. No two pieces alike.

Spring styles in New Regal Shoes came today. We are to take care of your Shoe wants this Spring without delay. We are to have the goods, not promises. We can make you Shoe happy.

Orchestration of Tomlinson.

It was evening in the Nearswell apartments, and the janitor was considering turning on the hall lights.

From No. 19, on the first floor, came the sound of a young girl practicing—

"Ah-hah-hah—thuh-fuh-how-ers thuh blum—hah-hah!" Across the hall in 27, young Johnson played "The Soldier's Dream" on his cornet. On the second floor a Polish pianist was tearing up the chromatic scale, and the Hurling was heard from the phonograph blaring "Washington Post March." On the third floor Ernest and Harold, the cute twins, played sweetly on mandolin and guitar, and from 96, on the fourth floor, came the chant of the Flint Street Baptist choir in tremendous rehearsal.

In the center of the building Mr. Tomlinson looked across at his wife "Maggie," he said in a strange, low voice. "Te-um—te-um—te-um—te-um—why is a hand that beats—tra-la—tra-la—hit up the white keys, pound on the black keys—fa, si, do?"

"Horse!" gasped Mrs. Tomlinson in alarm.

"P flat!" he screamed. "Sound the glad piccolo! Boon, boom—in A major—hold the note by the tail!"

"Then he chased his faithful wife into the dumbwaiter,
